

EBLA Energiser Coaching

Express yourself more easily in 30 days

Is it a struggle to talk about topics that matter to you?

Are you often lost for words or grammar when speaking or writing?

Do you hesitate when you need to write an email?

Let's kick-start your English with 21 days of express writing.

How does it work?

I email you topics, you choose one, set a timer for 5 minutes and write non-stop. You email me your writing and I give you feedback. Then you do the next one. And another one.

Words and grammar that are currently sleeping get activated.

We notice any problems and I suggest solutions.

Best of all, both writing and speaking in English become easier, like my client Barbara reported:

I decided to write you more because I realised how important this express writing is to improve my language.

Your investment for 30 days of email coaching is NZ$197 (plus GST for NZ residents) and includes:

- topics for 15 x 5 minutes of express writing
- corrections, explanations and advice to enhance your writing and speaking
- a log to show your progress

At the end of 30 days, we schedule a video chat to talk about how you can continue to advance your English communication skills.

Do you want to express yourself faster and make fewer mistakes?

Then try the magic of express writing.
